

Peer Review

Bergman & Dacey, Inc. has the necessary skills and strengths to conduct effective and independent peer reviews of legal work conducted by other law firms for our clients. Bergman & Dacey, Inc. recognizes that there are times that a third party's input is useful in providing a different perspective or approach to the handling of any matter. In that end, we pride ourselves on our ability to assist our clients and their counsel in reaching a successful resolution of the particular litigation. Bergman & Dacey, Inc. can provide assistance in the following ways:

- Review of motion work;
- Suggestions and/or recommendations regarding strategy decisions and/or further planning of the litigation;
- Suggestions and/or recommendations regarding discovery planning and strategy;
- Input on experts; and
- Input on judges sitting in California and federal courts.
